

BEARDWINTER LLP

Francesca D'Aquila-Kelly

Francesca D'Aquila-Kelly is a lawyer in the Complex Litigation group at Beard Winter LLP. She was called to the Ontario Bar in 2018. Francesca's diverse practice includes defending personal injury, recreational, and commercial general liability claims. Francesca also acts as a prosecutor in environmental and regulatory matters. Francesca obtained her Juris Doctor in 2017 from the University of Windsor Faculty of Law and holds a criminology degree from York University.

While completing her law degree, Francesca served as Student Coordinator of the Peer Mentorship Program, was Club President of Windsor Law in Defence of the Wrongfully Convicted and was a Teaching Assistant in the area of Constitutional Law. She received the J.W. Whiteside award in recognition of her efforts in servicing the Faculty of Law and the legal community.

In her spare time, Francesca enjoys improving her culinary skills in the kitchen, exploring Toronto's restaurant scene, and skiing at Blue Mountain Resorts.
