

BEARDWINTER LLP

Agnes Ng

Agnes Ng is a member of Beard Winter's Corporate Law group and provides legal representation to clients on a wide variety of commercial and residential real estate and corporate commercial matters. Combining her interest in real estate with her corporate commercial experience, Agnes advises corporations and individuals on commercial and multi-family income real estate projects ranging from industrial, office, shopping centres, apartments, condominiums and single-family developments.

In her corporate practice, Agnes advises start-ups, emerging enterprises, established companies as well as troubled businesses seeking to avoid bankruptcy. Agnes also assists clients with incorporations, corporate restructuring, mergers and acquisitions, and counsels clients on how to practically interpret and implement contractual, statutory, and regulatory requirements into their daily business operations.

Agnes holds a Master of Laws with a focus on international corporate commercial law, international intellectual property and international mergers and acquisitions. She has an unparalleled enthusiasm for the commercial markets, especially concerning the real estate industry whether it be local, regional or international.

Agnes has represented clients before the courts of Canada, United Kingdom and Hong Kong. While in Hong Kong, she worked at a top tier litigation firm with many of her projects focused on corporate commercial and civil litigation. In the United Kingdom, she assisted and provided legal advice to low-income individuals and families on matters relating to lease negotiations, property rental agreements and other landlord and tenant issues.

Outside of work, Agnes serves on the board of directors for the Toronto Standard Condominium Corporation 2009, a condominium located in downtown Toronto. Agnes is also a contributing writer for the Legal Alert and an active volunteer at Pro Bono Ontario and Access Pro Bono British Columbia.
