

BEARDWINTER LLP

Bonnie Clarke

Bonnie Clarke is an associate lawyer providing litigation representation to insurers, municipalities, school boards, and public and private sector organizations. She specializes in occupiers' liability, professional negligence, commercial and social host liability, sport and recreation liability, and motor vehicle accident claims.

In her professional negligence practice, Bonnie focuses on professional errors and omissions, including repairing and defending matters on behalf of lawyers.

Her sport and recreation liability practice involves the defence of resorts and organizations providing winter leisure activities in the province of Ontario. Bonnie also represents security companies, hotels and bars.

Bonnie was recognized by her peers as one of Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch in Canada™ 2023 in the practice area of personal injury litigation.

Bonnie obtained a Bachelor of Science degree in psychology from McGill. Bonnie also completed her Ontario Secondary School Teacher Training at OISE and applies her knowledge of the education sector in her legal practice.

Bonnie obtained her Juris Doctor from Western University where she graduated with Distinction.

Bonnie enjoys giving back to her local community and is the current chair of the board of directors of Shakespeare-in-the-Ruff, a not-for-profit theatre company based in the east end of Toronto.
