

BEARDWINTER LLP

David Bleiwas

David represents both corporate clients and individuals involved in a variety of litigation matters, before the courts and tribunals and in arbitration proceedings. In addition to employment, commercial and franchise litigation, David has extensive experience in the areas of shareholder, construction and real estate disputes and has successfully represented clients on appeals before the Court of Appeal for Ontario.

A skilled negotiator and tenacious problem solver, David takes a practical and strategic approach to litigation. His focus on helping clients find the best solution means disputes are resolved in the most efficient and cost-effective manner possible. Clients appreciate David's attention to detail and the care he takes in fully understanding their issues. This approach is what enables him to be a rational and realistic voice, providing clients with the guidance and expertise they require.

Always mindful of the importance of providing clients with great service, David goes above and beyond when it comes to responding in a timely manner, properly explaining their rights, and clearly communicating the costs and benefits of any proposed course of action.

David is a busy father of four daughters, but still makes time for charitable endeavours. David is also a passionate sports enthusiast who stays young at heart by participating in baseball, hockey, skiing, golf, hiking and other activities.
