

BEARDWINTER LLP

Francesca D'Aquila-Kelly

Francesca D'Aquila-Kelly is an associate lawyer providing litigation representation to conservation authorities, municipalities, educational bodies, and various private sector organizations.

Francesca specializes in complex civil and commercial matters relating to occupiers' liability, sport and recreation liability, and property development disputes.

Francesca is experienced in conducting civil trials in the Ontario Small Claims Court and Part III Provincial Offences Act prosecutions in the Ontario Court of Justice (Provincial Offences Court). She is experienced in responding to appeals in the Divisional Court, the Ontario Court of Appeal, the Ontario Land Tribunal and the Information and Privacy Commissioner of Ontario.

Francesca obtained her Bachelor of Arts (Honours) in Criminology from York University and her Juris Doctor from the University of Windsor Faculty of Law.

During her time at Windsor Law, Francesca prioritized extra-curricular endeavours to contribute to the experience and success of her colleagues. In particular, Francesca acted as student coordinator for the Peer Mentorship Program, where she oversaw over 350 program participants. Francesca continues to play a mentorship role at Beard Winter.

In her spare time, Francesca enjoys skiing, spending time with her dog, and improving her culinary skills in the kitchen.

Contact

416.306.1718

fdaquila-kelly@beardwinter.com

Call to Bar

2018

Education

J.D., 2017

University of Windsor

B.A. (Hons.), 2012

York University

Practice Areas

- ▲ Occupiers' Liability
- ▲ Bodily Injury Defence
- ▲ Sport and Recreation Liability
- ▲ Property and Commercial General Liability

Associations

- ▲ Association of Ski Defence Attorneys
- ▲ Canadian Bar Association
- ▲ Ontario Bar Association
- ▲ The Advocates' Society