Kate Rawson joined the Insurance Litigation group at Beard Winter LLP following her Call to the Bar in 2022. She previously articulated with Beard Winter and summered at a boutique criminal defence firm in Toronto. Kate maintains a diverse practice defending various insurance law disputes, including motor vehicle accidents (tort and first-party accident benefits claims), personal injury, recreational liability claims, property damage, and occupier's liability claims. She also has experience representing clients in criminal defence, environmental, and regulatory matters.

After completing her Honours Bachelor of Arts Degree in English and Philosophy at the University of Toronto, Kate worked as a law clerk at a personal injury firm in Toronto before attending law school at Queen's University. While at law school, Kate received the Queen's Law Prize in Jurisprudence.

In her spare time, Kate enjoys travelling, reading, hiking, and cycling.
