Loretta De Thomasis

Loretta De Thomasis is a partner who has practised exclusively in insurance defence litigation since her call to the bar in 2013. She specializes in several types of negligence and personal injury claims. Loretta is particularly interested in assisting clients in defending occupiers' liability claims, motor vehicle accident claims, property damage disputes, commercial and social host liability, accident benefits claims, priority disputes, and loss transfer matters. Her practice focuses on providing representation to insurers, school boards, and condominium corporations.

Loretta obtained her Bachelor of Arts (Honours) degree in criminology, with a minor in Italian and Political Science from the University of Toronto (St. Michael's College). She obtained her JD from Osgoode Hall.

Loretta has successfully represented her clients before the Superior Court of Justice and Divisional Court. She also regularly represents insurers at the License Appeal Tribunal.

Loretta enjoys travelling and spending time with her family including her two young sons. She speaks Italian and is conversational in French.
