Roman Myndiuk is a partner at Beard Winter LLP. He practices civil litigation with an emphasis on insurance defence and commercial matters. Roman has extensive experience dealing with personal injury, property damage, occupier's liability, tavern liability, product liability, professional liability, breach of contract and ski defence cases. He also regularly defends first-party accident benefits claims and coverage disputes. Over the years, Roman has developed a particular interest in defending various public entities. He acts regularly for a number of conservation authorities and school boards on a variety of matters.

Roman obtained a B.A. (Hons.) in History from the University of Toronto and a J.D. from the University of Windsor. While at law school, Roman volunteered as a litigator at the Community Legal Aid Clinic where he represented clients in criminal trials, Small Claims Court and the Landlord and Tenant Board. He has also represented students in academic integrity and disciplinary hearings. Roman summered and articulated at the firm and currently co-chairs the firm's Articling Committee.

Roman was recognized by his peers in The Best Lawyers in Canada™ 2023 for his work in the practice area of personal injury litigation.

Roman appears regularly on behalf of clients at the Superior Court of Justice and the License Appeal Tribunal. He has appeared with senior counsel before the Court of Appeal for Ontario and the Supreme Court of Canada.

Outside of work, Roman is a sports fanatic who enjoys both watching and playing just about every type of sport. He enjoys playing soccer and hockey regularly and is trying to improve an always-shaky golf game.
